

Dan Webert

PARTNER

✉ dwebert@barkermartin.com

☎ (971) 277-2963

☎ (503) 805-1394

Dan Webert leads the firm's Portland office and represents property owners in complex construction defect and insurance recovery litigation. He's recovered tens of millions in damages on behalf of associations and owners of multifamily and commercial properties. Dan also provides general counsel services for clients navigating governance, contracts, and day-to-day operations.

With 20+ years of experience, Dan has handled construction defect, insurance coverage, lien, and real estate disputes in Oregon, Washington, and Florida. His results-driven approach is grounded in thorough legal analysis and tailored strategies.

Focus Areas

- › Construction Defect
- › Warranty and Property Damage Claims
- › Insurance Recovery

Bar & Court Admissions

- Oregon, Washington, Florida

Recognition

- Named "Rising Star," Oregon Super Lawyers — Construction Litigation (2011)

Education

- J.D., cum laude, Georgetown University Law Center — Executive Editor, Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics
- Graduate Fellowship, City University of New York
- B.A., magna cum laude, Oregon State University Honors College

Affiliations

- American Bar Association (Litigation + TIPS Sections)
- Community Associations Institute (OR, WA, Central FL)
- Oregon-Washington Community Association Managers (OWCAM)
- National Institute for Trial Advocacy (Certified in Trial Skills)

Outside the Office

Dan values efficiency, client education, and durable results. Outside the office, he's a backpacking enthusiast and youth baseball coach.