Dean Martin is the founding partner of Barker Martin and has devoted over 33 years to representing condominium and homeowner associations. His practice focuses on prosecuting and resolving construction defect and warranty claims—often securing favorable outcomes without the need for litigation. Dean also provides ongoing general counsel services to select associations, emphasizing preventive strategies and legal compliance.

He has been a legislative advocate in Washington State for more than two decades and continues to serve on the WSCAI Legislative Action Committee. Dean is highly respected for his strategic counsel and ability to navigate complex legal matters with precision.
